

Use of cookies and similar technologies

BETTING BANDITS LIMITED uses cookies to provide efficient operation of the homepage, to provide online services and to collect data on homepage usage and visitors' activities.

Additional identifiers, such as web beacons or other similar technologies are also used on BETTING BANDITS LIMITED homepages and applications.

What are cookies?

Cookies are a piece of information in the form of a small text file (it often only contains a string of numbers and letters identifying your device, but it may contain other information as well), which the browser (e.g., Google Chrome, Internet Explorer, Mozilla Firefox, Opera, etc.) of the used device (computer, tablet, mobile phone or other device) stores in its hard drive according to its settings to improve the functionality of our homepage and to facilitate the use of BETTING BANDITS LIMITED homepage for other users.

The server of BETTING BANDITS LIMITED homepage creates cookies and determines the information contained by them, and it may use cookies every time when the homepage is visited. A cookie may be considered to be an identification card of the user, which provides the homepage with information during each future visit. Cookies store the information previously searched for on the homepage, language, font size selection and other information, which improves convenience of use for homepage users.

Cookies are not dangerous and may not be used to spread computer viruses. When cookies are stored in the hard drive of the device, they cannot access and read other information stores in the respective hard drive, obtain e-mail addresses etc. Cookies only contain and transfer information to the server of BETTING BANDITS LIMITED homepage to the extent allowed by the user.

Which cookies do we use and for what purposes?

To improve the functionality of the BETTING BANDITS LIMITED homepage and facilitate use of the homepage, we use the cookies referred to below.

Session or temporary cookies

They are stored in the memory of the device and only exist until (they are automatically deleted) the internet browser is closed, i.e. use of the internet is discontinued. These cookies help the BETTING BANDITS LIMITED homepage identify how the user of the respective device moves from one page to another by remembering the activities performed on the previous page and provide security or basic functionality of the homepage. For example, session cookies ensure security of an online banking session. BETTING BANDITS LIMITED session cookies for security provision during online banking session are created in such a way that they are difficult to read, change, access or use. Session cookies are never stored in the hard drive of the device, and they do not collect any information from the device. Use of session cookies is interrupted at the end of the internet browser session, and they are also not available in the case when the session has been inactive during a certain period.

Permanent cookies

They are used in the hard drive of the device and are not deleted when you close the internet browser of the device. Permanent cookies identify the homepage user as a user of the BETTING BANDITS LIMITED homepage and later, upon returning to the homepage, help remember information on the user and activities previously performed on the homepage. Cookies will be stored in the device for a certain period depending on the type of cookie. Cookies of this type are used to analyse the number of homepage visitors, average time spent in a particular homepage section, how the user got to the homepage and how it is used. By analysing the obtained data, we can improve the functionality of the homepage. Sometimes, permanent cookies are used on the homepage for direct advertising by taking into account device browsing history.

The cookies used on the BETTING BANDITS LIMITED homepage

The cookies used on the BETTING BANDITS LIMITED homepage can be divided into 4 categories:

- mandatory cookies — necessary so that the visitor may use the features of our homepage and identify themselves;
